Real Name: Martha Eden

Occupation: Adventurer, Youth Counselor

Legal Status: U.S. Citizen with no criminal record

Place of Birth: Los Angeles, California

Base of Operations: Los Angeles, California

Group Affiliation: Justice For All

History: Martha Eden was taught at an early age Christian values and received Christ into her heart as a teenager. A few years ago, Martha and her future husband, Stephen Matthews were leaving a store they were approached by a drug dealer. Stephen tried to ignore him but Martha looked into his eyes. Suddenly, her body began to glow as she started to see images of drug users young and old in the past and present who bought drugs from the drug dealer. Martha fell to her knees and cried. When she looked up, the drug dealer was on his knees crying and begging for forgiveness. It became apparent that he saw the same images that were shown to Martha. It was a few days later, Martha realized that God had given her a gift to see events past, present and future to help others in revealing His power and truth to the world. Her deceased aunt Miriam Eden was a 1940's Christian Super-Heroine known as Revelator who had similar powers and this encouraged her even more to fight for justice in the name of God and continue the legacy as an oracle of truth known as Revelation.

Powers/Weapons: Revelation has the power to see events, people, etc. of the past, present and future when whichever is needed at any given moment and only as God allows. Some things must remain unseen. She can fly and fire "revelation light" from her body which causes her adversaries to see images of Christ's death and resurrection. She has heightened insight and wisdom. Revelation also has the ability to show others scenes from the past, present and future whenever needed through mental projection.
